School Annex
Debate Open
To Public

President Joseph Delgatto of the Lions Club announced yesterday that the forthcoming debate on whether Sierra Madre Schools should annex to the Pasadena School District will be held in the Advisory Room of the Sierra Madre School next Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock.

This is being done so that the public may attend and listen to John H. Curtis and Mrs. Claude H. (Elena) Brown debate the pros and cons of this subject on which the voters of Sierra Madre will decide at a special election Oct. 18.

The Lions Club will first stage its regular meeting at 7:15 o'clock at the Pink and White Cottage and then adjourn to the school. President Delgatto emphasizes that the debate meeting will be open to the general public.

Sierra Aids
Artificial Heart Valve

The National Health Institute sponsors the Conference on Prosthetic Valves for Heart Surgery, opening in Chicago tomorrow at the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

The symposium is devoted to reports and discussions of current advances in this little known field. It is attended by heart surgeons and surgical engineers from this country and abroad.

Orland W. Wilcox, chief engineer, represents Sierra Engineering Co. of Sierra Madre, prominent in recent developments in design technique and fabrication of the tiny, precisely-made heart valves. His work in artificial mitral valves, both canine and human, has aroused wide attention.

Sierra Engineering Co., with extensive background in specialized surgical instruments, has gained recognition in recent years for precision molding and fabrication of silicone rubber in a wide variety of applications.

Police Chief
On Vacation

Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan and Mrs. McMillan of 368 Mariposa, are enjoying a three-week trailer trip through the High Sierra, centering about Bridgeport.

At Fairfield Air Base they will visit their son, Ronald, his wife and family. Ronald is a technical sergeant at the air base.

During Chief McMillan's absence, Sgt. H. S. Embree will be acting chief of police.

Ironing Board
Fire Is Quelled

Fire originating in an ironing board at the home of Andrew P. Sloop, 816 Alta Vista Dr., was quickly quelled Tuesday afternoon by the Sierra Madre Fire Department, but not before the County Fire Department and the Forest Service were alerted.

House E. Olson Leases
News Job Print Plant

As a means of extending its service to Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and Foothill Area residents, the SIERRA MADRE NEWS takes pleasure in announcing that it has leased its commercial printing facilities to HOUSE E. OLSON, a widely known typographer and long-time resident of 704 Canyon Crest Rd.

Under the name of "THE PRINTING HOUSE at the Home of the Sierra Madre News," 9 Kersting Ct., Mr. Olson will conduct the business as a separate entity, handling all types of commercial printing, with no job too small, none too large. Phone is ELgin 5-3324.

Mr. Olson, of long, practical and artistic experience, has already actively entered upon his new work and will be glad to talk over with you your printing problems, wishes, costs and expeditious delivery.

This is another of the services which the SIERRA MADRE NEWS has installed in recent months to better service the people of these communities. We bespeak your patronage for Mr. Olson and THE PRINTING HOUSE."

Street Light Program
Related At Meeting

Improved street lighting for Sierra Madre business and residential areas, badly needed after a 25-year-old antiquated system, moved nearer Tuesday morning at a Chamber of Commerce-auspiced public meeting in City Council Chambers, City Hall.

Businessmen and citizens heard two reports from Councilman Milton R. Emerson and City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington, one on the proposed lighting for the residential district, the other on the business area project, both the result of Emerson's and Bevington's conferences with the Southern California Edison Company.

ONE PARAGRAPH in the report on city-wide lighting emphasized the almost immediate need of such. It reads:

"The street lighting system throughout most of Sierra Madre is antiquated and inadequate. A spot check indicates that the average spacing of the present 1,000 lumen (approximately 60 watt) lights is 350 to 400 feet. There are many blocks that are more than 1,000 feet long with absolutely no lights. Many intersections have no lights and therefore both the traffic and persons looking for street names and so on, are operating in the dark."

John Curtis, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who presided, gave emphatic approval to the lighting project which he terms "an absolute necessity."

Acting Police Chief H. S. Embree strongly stressed better lighting as a deterrent to crime and as a means of preventing traffic accidents.

IT HAS BEEN shown that an average of 10,000 motor vehicles traverse Sierra Madre Blvd. each day and night, and that the present dim lighting of this important east-west street is conducive to accidents both to motorists and pedestrians.

The program calls for lighting three to ten times as bright as that now prevailing in the business district, and yet this would not double the present costs.

Seventy per cent of the costs in the business area would be defrayed by the property owners and 30 per cent by the city. Existing lights in the district are 6,000 lumens, with one of 10,000 lumens. Under the proposed new system there would be 31 lights, each of 20,000 lumens or 450 watts. Taller ornamental poles would replace the present lower ones, but whether these will be of wood or steel remains to be determined.

In the business district charges, as outlined in the reports, are based on land assessment. Typical of these two instances may be cited: Royal Drugs, 82 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.—Cost of improved street lighting, $1.84 a month.
Roess Market, 331 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.—$6.18 a month.

APPROXIMATE costs for residential area lighting was given as from 43 to 50 cents a month. Here the present 1,000 lumen lights (60 watts) would be replaced by 2,500 lumens or approximately 150 watts, providing a 500 per cent increase in illumination. In general wooden poles would be used in the residential districts.

As a basis for comparison of various services the following represents an approximation of the per household per day cost:

Street sweeping, 6 cent; parks, 1.5 cents; PROPOSED STREET LIGHTING, 2.1 cents; library, 2.8 cents; flood control, 4.2 cents; police, 8.4 cents.

THE CHAMBER of Commerce adopted a resolution expressing its approval of the projected improved lighting, and thanking Councilman Emerson and Administrator Bevington. This will be presented at the Sept. 13 meeting of City Council, at which time the lighting program may be further considered.

To Show Works
Of Paris Artist

Mr. and Mrs. Mal Murison are having a showing of the modern paintings by Igon De Kamsky at their home on Pepperhill Rd. Sunday.

Mr. De Kamsky has just arrived in Los Angeles from Paris where his work has received much acclaim and popularity.

Vicki, Only 1½, Goes Adventuring in Gay September

Vicki Clarke, who is only 1½ years old, enjoyed thoroughly a spell of the wanderlust last Friday morning.

The wide, wide, wonderful world beyond the confines of 30 W. Alegria, where she plays and makes her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. (Mary) Clarke, beckoned irresistibly to Vicki shortly after a hearty breakfast—and away she toddled.

Seeking adventure—just like these husky, handsome, hardy and gallant gals of today—she didn't advise anyone of her impending departure. You see, Vicki is an independent little lady and likes to do things on her very own.

OVER to Baldwin she went, trudging gaily along when suddenly the wide expanse of the Alegria-Baldwin intersection stumped her.

But only for a moment. Gingerly stepping from the curb, Vicki hurried across the street—safely and fortunately—and presto, found herself standing in front of St. Rita's Catholic Church, gazing admiringly at this splendid and handsome edifice.

Here was the wide, wide world—and adventure—and

'Barnacle Bill the Sailor' Is Theme for Sierra Madre's Tournament of Roses Float

There'll be real girls—Sierra Madre beauties, and we have them—four of them, on Sierra Madre's float in the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Theme for the Sierra Madre float, which always evokes recognition from Tournament of Roses officials, and often awards, will be "Barnacle Bill the Sailor, old and rough, dirty and tough."

This was decided on at a well-attended meeting of the Float Committee last week at the home of City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington, 408 Manzanita. Twenty-five persons attended, according to Ralph R. Rule of 161 S. Baldwin, co-chairman of last year's committee.

THERE WAS general enthusiasm for the proposal to put live persons on the float. Last year's float, titled "The Stork, the Birds and the Bees," was built around a central figure of a stork, no live persons being utilized.

It captured second place honors for cities under 15,000 population. It was pointed out that use of live persons would enhance the chance of winning an even better award.

Manuel de la Torre designed last year's float; George T. Fleming Jr. directed the finances and Mr. Rule was co-chairman in an overall capacity. Dan MacDonald headed the Flower Committee; Bill Harris saw to it that the proper species were obtained in the requisite colors. Bob Osti went to the Flower Market in Los Angeles' Wall Street and made certain that the flowers and greenery were safely transported to Sierra Madre.

Decorating was done under direction of the Civic Club, with Mrs. Ann Tyler in general charge. Joining in the work on several Saturdays before New Year's and feverishly so in long hours just before the holiday to make certain the float was completed, were members of the Woman's Club, Order of the Eastern Star, VFW Auxiliary, American Legion Auxiliary, PTA, Friendship Club and Nursery School Association, plus scores of young folk from such units as the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

AS MANY as seven shifts were utilized on some Saturdays.

TOYON ROAD SUBDIVIDER
SEEKS CHEAP BARGAIN

INCOMING freshman Catherine McNamara from St. Rita's Parish, Sierra Madre, models new school uniform for Sister M. Benigna, OSF, principal at Mt. Alverno.

Would Grab $10,000
Land For Mere $1,000

Toyon Rd. property owners will meet with representatives of the Prescott Company of Pasadena at the John A. Sielen home, 325 Toyon Rd., Sept. 14, in an effort to iron out differences which the property owners contend, is due to months-long "miscarriage of justice" by the City Council, the Planning Commission and the company since inauguration of the dispute late last winter.

Ultimately the Planning Commission and City Council acted favorably for the subdivider, even though the lots allowed are considerably under the 15,000 square feet which has been accepted as standard for Sierra Madre, especially in hillside areas such as the proposed subdivision occupying part of the old Lewis property.

Some of the lots accepted are 7,500 square feet, and others are upward to 11,000 feet but practically none are of the 15,000 feet prescribed in most localities in Los Angeles County.

THE PRESCOTT COMPANY, with Arthur Shapiro and Atty. Thomas G. Garcia, as its representatives, initially and apparently overlooked the fact that Toyon residents own the land providing the only suitable roadway to the disputed tract. In other words, the Toyon Rd. residents, fighting a last-ditch battle after Council and the Planning Commission had rejected their pleas in favor of an out-of-town subdivider, still have a remaining ace in the hole.

The Prescott Company, however, seeks this roadway property for a mere song. They offer $1,000 or $200 for each of five tracts, totaling 10,000 square feet, the market value of which is at least $10,000.

These are the 2,500 square foot Rubik tract, market value $2,500; the Schrotzberger tract, 2,500 square feet, market value $2,500; the Luxon property, 1,875 square feet, market value $1,875; the Watson tract, 1,875 square feet, market value, $1,875, and the Anderson property, 1,250 square feet, market value, $1,250.

THE SUBDIVIDER'S offer of $1,000 for this valuable land does not include a number of other costs property owners will be put to including valuable trees, shrubbery and replacement of brick walls.

No mention has been made by the subdividers of the Seilen property which they must obtain for the proposed roadway and upon which no easement exists.

Mountain Lion
Prowls in City

Richard D. Bromley believes that a mountain lion is coming out of the hills nights and drinking from the water in the wading pool at his home, 181 W. Grand View.

Lieut. Fred La Lone of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team, who has examined the tracks about the pool, concurs in this belief.

Both the lieutenant and Sierra police are on the lookout for the prowler.

Waterhouse
Services Held
On Saturday

Services for Mrs. Marie Riba Waterhouse of 60 E. Bonita, Sierra Madre, who passed away Sept. 1, were held Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Congregational Church. Interment was in Live Oak Memorial Park, with Ripple Mortuary in charge.

Mrs. Waterhouse, Canadian born, had been a California resident for 30 years. She was a member of Plentywood, Montana Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and is survived by her husband, Ernest Waterhouse, and a brother, Lewis R. Riba of Minneapolis.

Joan-lee Woehler has written the following poem in commemoration of Mrs. Waterhouse:

Marie, our beloved and generous one
Has lived her life like the needed sun:
Rising to work on and love and scold
The errant, the unwise, the sick and old
Who needed her fruitful care.

And there is no doubt we love Marie
As we love the flowers she grew and the time she gave us.
And the integrity that was she.

Library Will Open
New Children's Room

A new Children's Room, fitted with custom-made book shelves and reading tables provided by the City of Sierra Madre, will be opened at Sierra Madre Public Library this Saturday at 10 a.m.

Members of the Library Board donated their services by painting the walls of this new room. The space is the former Community Room which was used by the Friends of the Library for their cultural activities.

Mrs. Gloria Hinshaw, children's librarian, is in charge of the room, and is aided by Mrs. Margaret Chebeck, library assistant, according to an announcement made by Miss Ruth Cain, city librarian.

THE REFERENCE section of the main library has been moved into the space formerly occupied by the children's room.

Last Summer
Teener Dance

Teenagers will say "good-bye to summer" at the last of five summer dances sponsored by the Youth Coordinating Council, the City Recreation Department, and the Sierra Madre Civic Club, on Friday, Sept. 9, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. at the Youth Hut (Creole Grotto) in Sierra Vista Park.

Because of the success of the previous dances, enough money has been earned to make this dance a "free admission" affair for Sierra Madre's 7th-14th graders.

Slacks and collared shirts and dresses or skirts and blouses are required, according to the rules set up by the Youth Council.

L. Gifford Kenworthy, 420 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., chairman of the Citizens for Excellence, has announced the group's sponsors include Charles Ayers, Michael Stolzberg and John C. Wilfong.

The 59 sponsors of the organization are urging the approval of the $9 million high school and $4½ million junior college bond issues which will appear on the ballot Nov. 8.

Funds from these bonds will be used to establish a third high school at the present Pasadena City College site and to build a new and larger junior college east of the present campus.

Voice Lessons To Be Given In Pasadena

The Extended Day Division of Pasadena City College offers to the professional and amateur singer a variety of courses instructed by Dorothea Pollak, of the Viennese concert stage, trained in the highest traditions of European musical art.

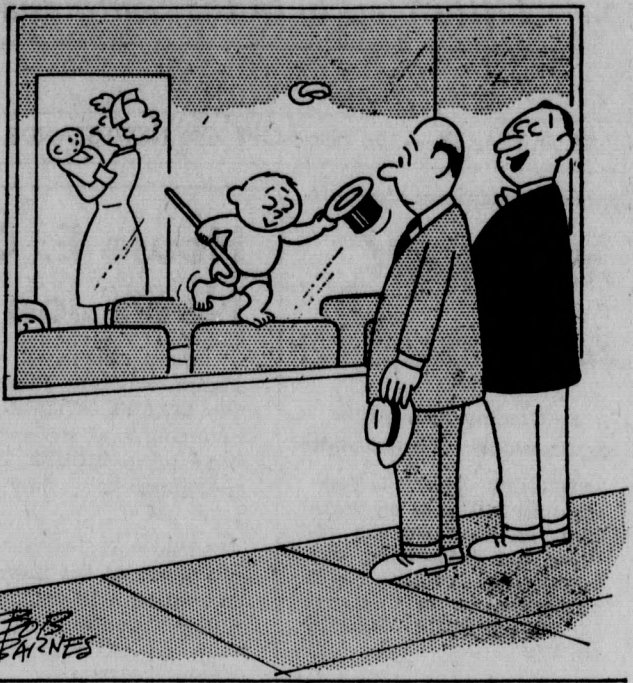

Two classes are given at the campus, 1570 E. Colorado Blvd., Building K—voice, advanced (international repertoire of opera, oratorio and art song, from the English, French, German and Italian classics to the contemporary), Tuesday evening from 7 to 10, room 102 (an audition with the teacher is required), and voice, elementary, (rudiments of music, sight reading, simple art and folk songs), Monday evening from 7 to 10, room 3, open to all.

Two classes are given in the auditorium of Fremont School, between Foothill Blvd. and La Tierra St., at Avocado Ave.—voice and solo singing (advanced singing techniques, studies of opera, oratorio, operetta, musical comedy and contemporary song), Wednesday afternoon from 12:30 to 3:30; and voice, intermediate (voice placement, vocal exercises and literature), Wednesday morning from 9 to 12 noon.

All classes are open to both men and women. All members may perform in recital with the Pasadena Songbirds. Registration is completed in the classroom. The fall term begins Sept. 12.

Offered this year, for the first time, will be advanced courses on investments, abstract painting and a class on travel tips abroad in our changing world.

Arts and crafts in a variety of fields are offered. All-day classes in landscapes again will be taught. General shop, sewing and jewelry silversmithing will be available.

Beginning at the spring semester, drama will be taught by Mr. Robert Ben All.

Three courses, ever popular with adults, are typing, French and Spanish.

Mothers of preschool children, interested in learning behavior patterns of their children and also in exposing the child to a healthy play atmosphere with other children, will have a chance to study these things first hand in the parent education group. Class is held during the day and both mother and child attend.

Enrollment will take place at the first class meeting and late enrollments will be at the discretion of the instructor. For schedule details, call Atlantic 9-3691, Extension 6 or 7.

Mt. Alverno Guild's Shop Celebrates First Birthday

A birthday sale will take place in a little shop, located at 158A W. Live Oak, Arcadia.

Mrs. Anthony V. Willmas, Mount Alverno Guild Thrift Shop chairman, says the eight-day sale will begin Sept. 9 and end Saturday, Sept. 17. All ladies ready to wear will be half price.

Mrs. Robert F. Castelan, store manager, feels the sale is one way of thanking the thousands of patrons who have helped make this enterprise a true success story.

The Thrift Shop was started by the guild just a year ago, is open daily — 10 to 4 including Saturdays. It has clothes for all members of the family; also, paintings, picture frames, china, end tables, books, current magazines, sheets, blankets, jewelry, toys, Halloween costumes, etc.

The guild members who donate their time in management and staffing of the shop have but one objective, to assist the Sisters of St. Francis of Penance and Christian Charity with their ever increasing financial burdens in maintaining the Novitiate.

The Sisters are not only a nursing order but teach thousands of boys and girls in elementary schools, including the new girls high school in Sierra Madre, "Mount Alverno Heights."

Hadassah Plans Annual Dinner Party Sept. 17

San Gabriel Chapter of Hadassah has scheduled its annual benefit dinner party Sept. 17 in the San Gabriel home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jaffee, 8736 Naomi. Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m. with dinner following at 8.

Proceeds from this year's event will be used to purchase an Electro-Cardiograph for the new medical center in Israel which was dedicated last Aug. 3.

In honor of this dedication, Yacov Nash, Israeli Consul General in Los Angeles, will be guest speaker.

General party chairmen, Mrs. Richard Manning, Mrs. Frank Ackerman and Mrs. Gerson Horrance, have announced the evening will include the awarding of a three-day and two-night stay at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas to some lucky person and professional entertainment.

Don Weissman, acting president of San Gabriel Light Opera Association, will present his variety acts of song, dance and comedy.

Everyone is invited to participate in this evening of fun. Reservations may be made by calling SYCAMORE 6-2807, Hillcrest 6-4240 or ELgin 5-3244.

MILLINERY CLASS

The adult education millinery class will begin its fourth semester Sept. 15 in Sierra Madre Park House and will continue each Thursday morning from 9 until 12. Mrs. Felicia Laws again will instruct the class which is open to the public at no charge. It is essential everyone planning to attend register on the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Andreas de Jong, 25 Olive, are the parents of a daughter, Theodora Antoinette "Terry," born Aug. 20 at Sierra Madre Hospital and weighing 8 pounds, 3½ ounces. The paternal grandmother is Mrs. Lenora Gaggero of Pasadena. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Endicott of El Monte. The other Gaggero daughters are Hope, 7, and Stephanie, 4.

The Rex P. Kettlers, 188 N. Auburn, are the parents of a daughter, Kim Ann, born Aug. 25 at Sierra Madre Hospital and weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Edie Solee of Hillsboro, N.D. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Letter of Frazee, Minn.

Community Theater Gives Plans for Year

To officially kick-off its sixth season, Arcadia Community Theater held a meeting at the Westerner Hotel and planned an all-out membership drive.

Using the slogan, "Act Now," they urge all interested persons in Arcadia and surrounding communities to join this rapidly growing group which last year presented "The Happy Time," "Picnic" and "Teahouse of the August Moon."

Promising an equally interesting season this year, members have selected three plays, each with a different director. These, plus a monthly workshop meeting and a fund-raising affair in April, should go far to make this year even more successful.

Interested persons call Mrs. Roy Guild, HL 7-0414, or Mrs. Winter Dean, HL 7-0972.

Plays again will be presented at the Sierra Madre School Auditorium.

Women's Division To Sponsor Annual Party

A membership social will be sponsored by the Women's Division of the Foothill Jewish Community Center on Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 8 p.m. in the home of its president, Mrs. Charles Lapson, 625 W. Foothill Blvd., Arcadia.

The party will be held poolside, and will feature a showing of fall hats and fall accessories from McBratney's in Monrovia. Models will be members of the group. Mrs. Jules Larner will speak briefly on the purposes and plans for the coming season, according to Mrs. Louis Lasser, program chairman.

Mrs. Lee Streicher, in charge of membership and general chairman of the event, states "The theme of the evening will be a Gateway to Friendship via the Women's Division of the Foothill Jewish Community Center." She urges all interested women in the community who may not have been contacted to phone her at EL 8-1298 or her co-chairman, Mrs. Irvin Kaufman, HI. 7-1645, for additional information. Refreshments will be served. There is no charge for this annual membership event.

UP ON...

Hastings Hill

Well, we've had it — vacation that is.

Now is the time to get out last year's school clothes and find they've all been outgrown. Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party because election is in November.

Now also is the time for all women to make their annual fall resolution to say "no" when asked to do various neighborhood civic chores. To insure that you will keep this resolution, in event you are slow at thinking for excuses, try our uncopied "excuse list." This is a list typed or printed in clear large letters on heavy cardboard and posted at the telephone. Beside each item on the list provide several squares large enough to jot down notations as to the date and enables you to use your "nos" so that nobody will have feeling hurt or become suspicious.

Of course it might be easier if a universal list were used. You could just say "No, No, 4," for instance, and immediately the caller would know you had guests coming from Chicago.

If you are too sweet and truthful to know what we are talking about, here are a few excuses, tried and true, that will get you out of anything:

No. 1 (on all lists) — "I'm terribly sorry I can't, but I have a dental appointment. I've had it for six months, and you know how busy they are. I don't DARE cancel or my teeth would fall out before I got another appointment."

No. 2 (always requiring explanation) "I've a doctor's appointment. No, I'm not pregnant and it's not serious. Just a checkup, you know."

No. 3 (self explanatory) "There's a man coming to fix the washing machine and I've been waiting since Tuesday. No telling when he'll get here. I don't dare leave the house."

No. 4 — The out-of-town guests bit.

No. 5 — "I'm painting the bedroom ceiling and it will take three days to get it out of my hair. I can't possibly get away."

As you can see the possibilities are unlimited. Of course if you are brave enough you can just say, "No, thank you."

Or you could say "Yes."

Home again after a visit to several western national parks are Eileen and Horace Ray, Carl and Carter. Bea Wotchnik says she feels that summer is just starting instead of ending because she and her family were away for two months, including four weeks in Canada. Among families spending the long weekend at Balboa or other beaches were Dora and Myron Hoag and Mary Ann.

Wilson Junior High PTA board members will begin their year's activities with a faculty dinner Sept. 19 at the George Miller home, 635 S. Madre. All faculty and board members and their husbands or wives will be in attendance. Marge Kane, who for two years was president of the Field PTA, is the Wilson president this year. Vivian Gnewuch is chairman of the dinner.

Gwen and Bill Shiner, with Chip, Wendy and Jimmy, arrived home last weekend after more than a two-month holiday in the East. There's hardly one place you can think of that they didn't at least drive through. A good part of their time was spent in Canada and New England states.

Christine and Gordon Temple—Gail too, have returned from a two-week stay at Newport, all brown like berries.

Leo and Fred Malig, with their children, Melissa and Rick, left last Saturday by plane for Mississippi where they will make their future home. Once they have gotten settled in their new home, their German Shepherd, Storm, will be flown to them. Neighbors were sorry to see them go since they were one of the "firsts" in the Upper Ranch and loved by all that knew them.

Last week Bob Babick and Jim Balog "took to the hills" and went to Henniger Flats, on the Mt. Wilson trail, to have a "camp-out" for themselves. The ranger left his dog with them overnight and they found him not only to be "brave" and a good companion but also a marvelous garbage disposal. The trip was fun and also educational — they found out exactly how much they ate because the food carried in their packs and it didn't get any lighter as the trail progressed.

Irene and Russ Delahooke are back from a fun and restful two weeks at Laguna Beach. Haven't found out yet if they were among those greeting "Good Old Mill" from Peoria.

The Reddys, Helen, Bob, Pam and Robin, have returned from a month's holiday which took them through the Gulf States and Nassau. They motored to Miami by way of New Orleans and the Everglades. The trip to Nassau was made by air. From all reports, it was a grand trip and each member of the family is ready to go again as soon as time permits.

Shakespeare Juniors Plan Party

Shakespeare Club Juniors will entertain prospective members at a brunch, arranged by the membership committee, Thursday, Sept. 15 at 11 a.m. at Stratford House.

Following a theme of Indian Summer, the tables will be centered with an arrangement of reeds and late summer blooms accented with miniature birch bark canoes adding an Indian motif. Mrs. William Reitzell is in charge of the decorations.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mesdames Geo. E. Berger, chairman of the party, Daniel H. Rogers, president, and William E. Cameron.

Among special guests who have received the invitations, designed with a colorful Indian sunburst symbol, are Mrs. James H. Cherry, president of Shakespeare Club; Mesdames Kenneth H. Scott, Harold D. Weiner, and T. William Heidner, advisors of the juniors; and Mesdames Robert Cushman, Lawrence B. Hendrickson, Stanley A. Newlin Jr., Langdon H. Tannehill, past president of the juniors.

The entertainment concluding the afternoon will be arranged by Mrs. Delford B. McGee assisted by Mesdames Henry C. Poes Jr. and Robert Hayes.

Others assisting with the end-of-summer affair include Mesdames Thomas Horn, Thomas McNair, William Cranford, Wesley Anderson, and Jack Archer who designed the invitations.

Don Benito Schedules Coffee Hours

As in the past, Don Benito PTA will sponsor two "get-acquainted" coffee parties the day school opens, Sept. 12 — one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Bachtel, hospitality chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Grant Brown, will greet parents attending. The school's "Dads' Barbecue" has been scheduled for the evening of Sept. 21, beginning at 7. A short program will follow.

New parents in the area are urged to attend this event and meet other parents and the school's staff. For veteran parents, it is a fine opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

Tickets may be purchased through Don Benito PTA members through Sept. 20.

Councilmen See Site for Nursery School Addition

City councilmen Tuesday visited the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School adjoining Sierra Vista Park to see first-hand the 10,000-square foot site which the Nursery School wishes and on which it projects a new addition.

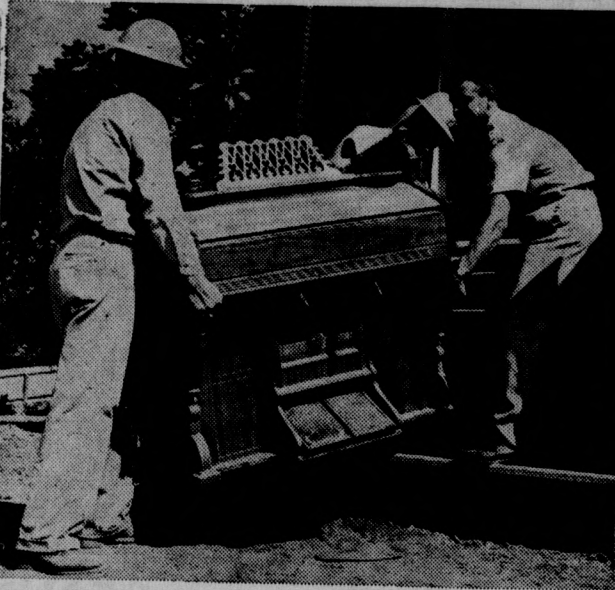

The addition, which would be on city-owned property adjoining the present Nursery School, would increase total accommodations from 120 to 170 children.

TODAY'S PUPILS RESTORE YESTERDAY'S SCHOOL

Restoration of 100 year old Columbia Grammar School as it stood during Gold Rush Days is completed this week. Contributions of California public school pupils and teachers underwrote restoration to create in Columbia Historic State Park a permanent monument to education's role in early California. Project was sponsored by California Teachers Association.

Top: Buck R. Nelson, restoration foreman, and Wesley Cater, park superintendent, help carry in "pump organ" more than 100 years old, gift of the Downey School District. Organ, which probably came around the Horn, still plays. Left: Workman gives one of the old two-seater desks a final refinishing. Now back in its belfry, original school bell (below) still rings sweet and clear.

School will be open to public after dedication ceremonies November 5.

Ranch Nursery School Plans Bridge Tournament

Sept. 19 is the deadline for signing to play in the 1960-61 bridge tournament sponsored by Hastings Ranch Nursery School.

Mrs. William Linden, chairman of the event, has stated the cards announcing the new tournament are being mailed this week, with players from last year's games already signing up again.

She emphasized that it's all in fun, players are not professional experts and one need not have any connection with the school to enjoy this agreeable way of meeting other bridge players in the area. Players will be divided into Those interested in signing up, or wishing further information may contact Mrs. Linden at EL 5-6194 or any of the three members of her committee: Mrs. William Benke, 2455 Paloma St., SY 8-4518; Mrs. Russell Stubbs, 3610 Shadow Grove, EL 5-0320; Mrs. Robert Spies, 970 Crestview Dr., EL 5-7410.

I've just about decided that I am either going to have to have a party, go on a trip, or move.

After the long summer of not worrying too much about the corners, I suddenly realize that I either dig them out or I'm going to lose a couple of rooms in the shuffle, you know — autumn house cleaning.

That low sun that comes with the fall and winter exposes a lot of things that weren't there before. It took me a long time to find out how the fingerprints got above the door jams. I laid in wait expecting to see a marauding giant walk through the house.

When I finally caught the culprit it was No. 1 son testing to see how high he could jump. Zounds! What next? Footprints on the ceiling!

THE FLYING JOHN GALBRAITHS of Hartwood Point were at it again last weekend. They flew up to Lake Tahoe with Mr. and Mrs. William Gosline of Arcadia for a four-day holiday.

MR. AND MRS. H. C. TUMILTY of Sierra Madre Villa like to think they were most sensible grandparents and don't indulge their two grandsons at all.

The truth is that they are enjoying both to the fullest and always end up one way or another having at least one birthday party for them.

This time it was Jeff's turn to celebrate his first birthday anniversary. In addition to his mother, Mrs. Marilyn Jones, he was honored by Mr. and Mrs. Barney Tumilty and their daughter, Cinnie, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Napier, and of course his Uncle Mike.

MR. AND MRS. BEN ROGERS of Pasadena — Glen spent their weekend working on their cabin at Big Bear Lake. In addition to their own children they took Dee and Linda Paquette along with them.

THE JOSEPH PHILIPSONS are finally all back in the Old House Rd. home after a summer that has taken each and every member of the family in a different direction at a different time. They have been to Yosemite, Las Vegas as well as various and sundry camps.

DR. AND MRS. LINCOLN WILSON vacationed at Pebble Beach last week, sunning and playing golf.

THE DAVID ELMER family returned after a week with their two children visiting friends in Tahoe.

THE JOHN FRICKES of Barhite are back again after two sun-filled weeks at Catalina Island.

THE DR. ROBERT MUELLERS also have had a week over there with the Dr. Jack Paschall, Jr. on their boat, the "Turmaline".

THE ART BEARLEYS of Barhite are always reluctant to become mainlanders after their summer of to and from Catalina, but they too are back and getting David off to college.

MR. AND MRS. ELDON OSBURN of Edgell Lane are back from Costa Mesa where they vacationed at the family beach house.

MR. AND MRS. MEL KNOLL are back in their Villa Heights Rr. home with their four daughters. They vacationed at Lake Tahoe for the fourth successive year. Mrs. Knoll said that they have all but the six-year-old daughter up on water skis now. They were visited there by the Eric Lovewells of Upper Hastings.

THE WYMAN WILLIAMS of Lindaloo Lane are back with their three sons, Randy,

Stanford Juniors Schedule Membership Dinner Sept. 14

Mrs. Jerold J. Haserot, president of the Stanford Juniors, has announced plans for the major activities of the coming year. First event will be the membership dinner, to be given on Wednesday, Sept. 14, at 7 p.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Atchison, 425 S. San Rafael Avenue, Pasadena.

CF Guild Tournament Needs Players

Hastings Ranch Guild for Cystic Fibrosis Bridge Tournament chairmen have announced there is still time to sign up for the games.

Couples in the guild who wish to play evenings call Mrs. Forrest D. Paxton, EL 5-3137. Any women who wish to play day or evening call Mrs. Richard S. McClain, EL 5-3126.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony A. Sellitto, 1390 Coronet, are the parents of a daughter, Camille Maria, born Aug. 8, at St. Luke Hospital and weighing 6 1/2 pounds. The other Sellitto children are Antonia, 14, Lucille, 8, and Mark, 22 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Haikara, 1019 Cynthia, are the parents of a son, Adam Ross, born Aug. 22 at St. Luke Hospital and weighing 8 pounds, 5 ounces. The paternal grandmother is Mrs. Mary Haikara of Bethel, Vt.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woodbury of Pasadena. The Haikaras have another son, Eric, 7.

Scott, and Jamey, after a whole summer at their Lake Tahoe home. Matter of fact, the house the Knolls rented is near the Williams home so they saw a lot of each other.

The Valentine Dessert Bridge benefit, sponsored annually to raise a tuition scholarship for a Pasadena area girl, has been slated for Wednesday, Feb. 15, 1961. A Mexican motif has been chosen for the dinner which will honor a large group of new members. Mrs. Ted Hinchshaw, chairman of the event, has indicated that catering and entertainment will be provided by Don Jun Mijares. Assisting Mrs. Hinchshaw with details of the party are Mmes. Charles Sandberg, decorations; George Kroeger, arrangements; Roger Osenbaugh, food; and Charles Malouf, entertainment.

New members of the board, which met recently at Mrs. Haserot's home, include Mmes. James C. Barrett, Jr., vice president; George Kroeger, treasurer; George S. Wheaton, corresponding secretary; and Miss Sheryl Wadsworth, recording secretary.

Chairmen of standing committees are Mmes. Philip Sacta, membership; Trevor Morris, scholarship; Wesley H. Train, Thrift Shop; Peter Price, publicity; Thomas Atchison, telephone; and Bruce C. Turnbull, social events.

Enacted S.M. Fire Hazard Ordinance Contains Many Provisos to Halt Outbreaks

Sierra Madreans generally are interested in the fire hazard ordinance which was recently enacted by City Council and which was submitted to the city fathers by a special committee named to formulate it and which was headed by Paul Baumann of 756 N. Auburn.

The enacted ordinance, first citing that "during periods of subnormal rainfall and sustained drouth the chaparral cover, if unprotected, may become an extreme fire hazard," contains the following vital points:

NO FIRING of tracer bullets into or across Protected Fire Areas. There is a similar prohibition against explosives, fireworks, blasting.

No person shall use any lighted or smoldering material in connection with smoking bees.

No person shall build, ignite or maintain any outdoor fire of any kind in or upon any Protected Fire Area without permission from the fire chief.

No person shall build, ignite or maintain any outdoor fire in a barbecue or otherwise when any high wind is blowing or when there is no person aged 17 or over present to watch and who is capable of tending such a fire.

The fire chief may, upon written notice, require property owners to remove and clear within ten feet on each side of any roadway all flammable vegetation or other combustible growth, and may enter upon private property to do so.

NO PERSON shall place, deposit or dump garbage, cans, bottles, paper, ashes, refuse, trash, or combustible waste material in or upon any Protected Fire Area.

No person shall operate any motorcycle, motor scooter or other vehicle except upon clearly established public or private road within any Protected Fire Area without first having obtained a permit from the fire chief.

No person shall operate or use any device, machine or process such as a tar pot, decorative torch or any other device liable to start or cause fire in or upon any Protected Fire Area.

ANY PERSON owning, leasing, controlling, operating or maintaining any building or structure in, upon or adjoining any Protected Fire Area, and any person owning, leasing or controlling any land adjacent to such building or structure, shall at all times:

1.—Maintain around and adjacent to such building or structure an effective firebreak made by removing and clearing away, for a distance therefrom of not less than 30 feet on each side thereof all readily flammable vegetation or readily combustible growth. This section shall not apply to cultivated single specimens of trees, ornamental shrubbery, or cultivated ground cover such as green grass, ivy, succulents, or similar plants used as ground covers, provided that they do not form a means of rapidly transmitting fire from the native growth to any structure nor shall the same apply to plantings necessary for minimum erosion control.

2.—Maintain around and adjacent to any such building or structure additional fire protection or firebreak made by removing all brush, flammable vegetation, or combustible growth located from 30 feet to 100 feet from such building or structure as may be required by the commission or City Council when they find that because of extra hazardous conditions a firebreak of only 30 feet around such structures is not sufficient to provide reasonable fire safety. Grass and other vegetation located more than 30 feet from such building or structure and less than 18 inches in height above the ground may be maintained where necessary to stabilize the soil and prevent erosion.

3.—Remove that portion of any tree which extends within ten feet of the outlet of any chimney.

4.—Maintain any tree adjacent to or overhanging any building reasonably free of dead wood.

4.—Maintain the roof of any structure reasonably free of leaves, needles, or other dead vegetable growth.

NO PERSON shall light, ignite or otherwise set fire or smoke any tobacco, cigar, pipe, or cigar in or upon any Protected Fire Area; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall apply to any place of habitation, or within the boundaries of any established smoking area or camp site as designated by the chief or within any residence or within the outdoor living area of any residence.

The chief shall have the authority to deputize persons, in addition to members of his own department, with the authority to act as his authorized representative to enforce the provisions of this part.

The commission of its authorized representatives, may enter any premises, structure, or building not used for dwelling purposes at any reasonable hour to enforce this part.

Every person violating any provisions of this Ordinance or of any permit granted hereunder is guilty of a misdemeanor; and upon conviction thereof he shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not to exceed six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

PROVISIONS are made for Closed Areas when fire hazards are imminent, the proposed ordinance citing that unrestricted use of grass, grain, brush or forest-covered land and the failure to control fire hazards is a potential menace to life and property from fire and resulting erosion.

Public Apathy Deplored In Having Children Given Immunizing Polio Shots

By Roy O. Gilbert, M.D.
Los Angeles County Health Officer

If someone were to set about proving the truth of the popular philosophy that "people are funny" he could perhaps choose no better subject than that of poliomyelitis and the use of the Salk vaccine.

Before the advent of this immunizing agent, the word "polio" struck terror into the hearts of most parents of young children. When the disease actually struck a child the impulse of the parents was to search frantically for the help and counsel of every public health authority and medical person available to them. In many cases where the disease left the child crippled, the lives of parents were permanently shadowed by grief and fear.

In the light of these facts which should be fresh in the memory of every present-day parent, it is difficult to reconcile statistics which indicate millions of children under five years old are not yet immunized.

PHYSICIANS and public health authorities remember only too well the frantic efforts of the populace about four or five years ago, to beg, borrow, buy, or steal the vaccine for themselves and their children at the time when the vaccine was in short supply.

Considering the fact that although there is now a plentiful supply of vaccine on hand, and that almost 60 per cent of the population is not completely immunized, it is ironic that people now have to be urged to take advantage of polio immunizations.

Principal reason for this failure as advanced by those who have made surveys concerning public immunization programs is "public apathy." Although a comparatively high percentage of people in the lower "socio-economic group" are among the non-immunized, there is little reason to believe that their failure to gain protection is purely one of dollars and cents.

Community clinics set up for this group whereby immunizations are afforded for one dollar, and afforded free to those who feel they cannot pay anything, have fallen off sharply in attendance during recent months. In other similar programs conducted jointly by this Department and the National Foundation, it has been found necessary to use intensive educational means in an effort to persuade parents to have their children immunized.

THERE IS little doubt that the efficacy of the vaccine has been well established. In Los Angeles County a comparison of the number of polio cases in the three-year period preceding the availability of the vaccine totaled approximately 3,700 as compared to only 660 cases in the three years following. National figures tend to follow the same pattern, and in 1959 show that of all the paralytic cases recorded, 65 per cent occurred in the unvaccinated population and that only 3½ per cent occurred in the group that had received the protection of a series of four doses.

This department recommends that everyone be immunized against poliomyelitis and especially that preschool children be protected without delay. The basic immunization consists of two doses given one month apart and a third dose seven to 12 months after the second. For infants less than six months of age, three doses one month apart are recommended with a fourth dose seven to 12 months after the third. A booster dose is recommended for persons under 40 years of age who have completed the basic immunization series at least one year previously, and especially if several years have elapsed since the completion of the basic series of injections.

It appears that the weapon to defeat the tragic occurrence of paralysis from poliomyelitis is at hand. It remains for many people to start using it.

When might makes right the results are never satisfactory to both parties concerned.

Bids Opened For Duarte Flood Work

A three-month undertaking to provide additional flood protection for Duarte and vicinity will get under way soon following submission of an apparent low bid of $133,936 by the Owl Truck and Construction Company of Compton, for construction of Van Tassel Canyon Channel and related work.

Frank G. Bonelli, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, reported that bids for the project were opened in the offices of M. E. Salisbury, chief engineer of the County Flood Control District, with a total of eight proposals filed.

High bid was $497,799.05.

THE WORK involves clearing and stripping of the channel bottom, levee and road sites and excavation of channel storm deposits for use in road and levee fill, Bonelli said.

Also included is construction of facings on the levees, concrete headwalls and metal pipe side drains. Fish Canyon Rd. will be relocated and treated with asphalt surfacing, the supervisor reported.

Van Tassel Canyon Channel is located on the north bank of the San Gabriel River about 1 1/2 miles northeast of Foothill Blvd. Object of the flood control project is to reduce debris flow from the canyon and prevent it from spilling across nearby urban developments.

The improvements will be paid for from the current fiscal budget of the Flood Control District, Bonelli added.

dents, all freshmen; Ascension Parish School, 125 pupils; La Salle High School, 430 students.

This totals 2,031 students and pupils, a gain of 771 over the previous school opening.

INCLUDED IN this is the new Alverno Heights Academy where Sister M. Benigna, OSF, principal, announces that the freshman students will come from Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Monrovia and Pasadena.

Faculty members for the new academy include Sister M. Benigna, OSF, M.A. (University of Notre Dame); Sister M. Jane, vice principal, M.A. (University of Notre Dame); Sister M. Catherine, OSF, B.A. (Mt. St. Mary's College); Sister M. Rose, OSF, B.Mus. (Immaculate Heart College); Sister Marie Therese, OSF, B.A. (San Jose State College); Sister Marilyn, OSF, B.A. (San Jose State College); Mrs. Dorothy Hart, B.S. (University of California at Los Angeles); and Mrs. Marcella Titus, M.A. (Columbia University).

Located on the northern section of the former Barlow estate, the newly constructed Academy is a concrete block structure with a crushed tile roof. It harmonizes in color and texture with existing buildings.

FACILITIES in the school will accommodate an ultimate capacity of 560 students. In addition to the 13 classrooms, there are two large science laboratories, a work room for individual science projects, a photographic darkroom, a language laboratory, an audio-visual lecture room, typing and clothing classrooms, physical education shower and locker room, cafeteria, book room and a student store.

Architects are Verge and Clatworthy of Los Angeles. Building construction has been handled by Sutherland and McGoldrick of Sierra Madre.

Bus schedules for the schools remain practically unchanged from last school year.

urdays and in the hours immediately preceding New Year's Day in rushing the float through to completion. The work was done in the city's repair shops adjacent to the Municipal Swim Pool in Sierra Vista Park, near the City Water Works.

The City of Sierra Madre backed the enterprise with a $1,000 appropriation. The rest of the $2,500 or so needed was raised through selling of flowers on the streets, donations from merchants and chancing off of Rose Bowl tickets to the football game.

Floats entered in the Tournament of Roses Parade normally cost around $500 a foot. Cost of some of the more elaborate floats runs as high as $35,000. In comparison, Sierra Madre's float cost only around $2,500.

THE FOUR GIRLS will form a circle around the central figure of "Barnacle Bill" on the Sierra Madre float which, of course, will be of a nautical nature.

"We are hopeful," said Mr. Rule following last week's meeting, "that Sierra Madre, through city and public help, will be able this New Year's Day to present a float that will outstrip our effort last January. With an all-round concerted effort we believe that we can accomplish this."

Another meeting of the Float Committee is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Fifty-four new titles especially selected for high school and college student use in the fields of literature and history will be displayed in the reference area this Saturday. 5 Big Markets Prefer S. M. News Tear Sheets

The legibility and typographical appearance of the SIERRA MADRE NEWS has evoked considerable praise and approval in late months.

Primarily this is due to expert, exacting, precision craftsmanship by experienced printers and pressmen whose work has been melded into an A-1 product by close association and workmanship through years of cooperative effort, this constantly improving as the months ensue.

Here's proof:

There are five large markets advertising weekly in the Sierra Madre News—Von's Shopping Bag, Roess, Market Basket, Roberts and A & P.

The scores of tear sheets which these five markets post in their stores each Thursday advertising their weekend sales all come from the SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

These five big markets prefer the appearance of their ads as printed in the SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

Just a hint to other advertisers in Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and the Foothill Area where the SIERRA MADRE NEWS circulation is double that of the Pasadena or Los Angeles newspapers.

Republicans

Mrs. Cason is arranging six coffees at which leading Republicans will speak. Tentatively, the first will be addressed by Lloyd Nolan, movie and theater star.

ON THE DEMOCRATIC side, Mrs. Kenneth L. Moyer appeals for more workers with which to staff headquarters which will be open daily if sufficient Democrats will volunteer their services.

John Holt, 571 Ramona, and Mrs. Kenneth Sheets, 435 N. Auburn, are chairmen of the "Dollars for Democrats" drive which begins tomorrow, and continuing through Sept. 19.

ONLY FOUR more days are left to register for the Nov. 8 Presidential general election, warns Aaron "Pat" Glaser, Republican precinct chairman, in his final preliminary checkup before the Sept. 15 registration deadline.

"For those people who are new in California, there is one exception to residence requirements for registration," Glaser says. "Newcomers who have lived less than one year in California and who are legally registered in some other state, may make special application directly to the Registrar of Voters up to Sept. 15 for eligibility to vote for Presidential and vice presidential candidates only."

ABSENTEE BALLOT applications are due Oct. 19 and may be obtained at Republican campaign headquarters or from precinct captains.

Republican precinct captains covering each of Sierra Madre's 21 precincts are:

Mrs. Bernard Tumility, Precinct 1; Mrs. Harold Goodfellow, 2; Sid Brown, 3; Mrs. Claude H. Brown, 4; Mrs. Maurice Hopkins, 5; Forrest Besocke, 6; C. F. Ratliff, 7; William Broughton, 8; Mrs. William Hawkins, 9; Mrs. Hugh Warren, 10; Ralph Rule, 11; Mrs. Robert deWeese, 12; Mrs. Hugh Colvin, 13; Franklin Howell, 14; Mrs. Adolphe Gourdeau, 15; Mrs. Willard Wilder, 16; Lorance

May we walk in Thy sight and Thy light, O Father, for the benefit of Thy spirituality, Thy cause and our

OUR OFFICIALS:

Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand, 21st Congressional District.
Assemblyman Frank Lanterman, 48th Assembly District.
Mayor W. Webster Vannier, Sierra Madre.

Schools Open! Be Alert!

Motorists should be extra careful, especially during the first few days of the new school year when hundreds of children in Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and the Foothill Area will be going to and from school. Scores of these youngsters will be kindergartners on their own for the first time.

Drivers should be particularly cautious at street intersections near schools and where children are expected to cross.

Prima facie speed limit in school zones is 25 miles an hour, but motorists should be sure their rate of speed is safe under the special conditions prevailing.

Above all—think! Don't let your mind lag or encounter a blind spot. Watch where and how you drive. "BE EVER ALERT!"

Kudos to Chief McMillan

When a newspaper editor sits down at his desk in the morning and begins, as best he may, to light the way and let the people know, he is fully aware that during the day he will tramp on somebody's toes. For an average of two in every five stories that he prints there are people concerned or who have "an axe to grind," or want to conceal something and so, oppose having the story reach the light of day. He knows that if he seeks to be a good editor responsive to his duty that he must be ruthless and steadfast in his determination to print the news.

The save is true of a police chief. By the very nature of policing he is bound to offend someone each day, Sundays included. If he doesn't then he is complacent, weak-backed and "rubber-brained" and not worth his salt in seeing that the laws are enforced without fear or favor, the meanwhile disregarding the "you know me, chief, boys" and the others, sometimes prominent citizens, who seek to influence his decisions.

THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS believes that in Gordon G. McMillan this city has a reliable, alert-minded, steadfast—and valuable—police chief, one who through the years has sought diligently, earnestly and honestly to enforce the laws of city, state and nation as they pertain to Sierra Madre. He is a dauntless little man who commands the respect of officers who work with him and of many citizens with whom he comes in contact.

We know, through years of experience, that there are honest and also dishonest police officials, the same as there are honest and dishonest officeholders, some of the latter pushing to the utmost and through devious means their self-centered and sometimes dictatorial ambitions.

CHIEF McMILLAN is not of this type. He has earned his chevrons in truth, honest and capable service to this city—our "Foothill City of Livability." There will be small, juvenile crime in any city, large or small, in these days of the roaring automobile and the ability of anyone to get a gun, and some of major proportions, too, but in the end "the badman" pays and always will, thanks to the cumulative efforts of police officers like Chief McMillan.

THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS commends Chief McMillan. He is a fine officer and a sincere and fearless gentleman. We hope he will be with us as police chief for quite a spell.

Public's Right to Know

There are some men in officialdom who are extremely able in their work but equally extremely inept and unable in their public relations.

All of which is detrimental to them, but there are times when it hurts the public more, especially in the latter's right to know.

David A. Sommers, director for the Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Commission, apparently is one of these individuals.

AS PROVED in many instances, notably in the Friday, Aug. 26 second annual Aqua Fair at the Sierra Vista Park pool, he is a capable and efficient sports director.

The water show he planned and directed was tops, showing how well his summer sports program, especially swimming, had succeeded so admirably, with scores of this city's boys and girls. It was a program which made you feel proud of Sierra Madre and what this city is doing for its youngsters.

But alas, Dave—perhaps in the too many things he had to do—fell down lamentably in his public relations, both before and after the Aqua Fair.

Apparently, it was difficult to convince him that pre-show publicity was necessary in order to assure a crowd. Whether he wanted it or not he received the proper pre-show news in the SIERRA MADRE NEWS. And he had a record-breaking crowd of more than 900, compared with 600 last year.

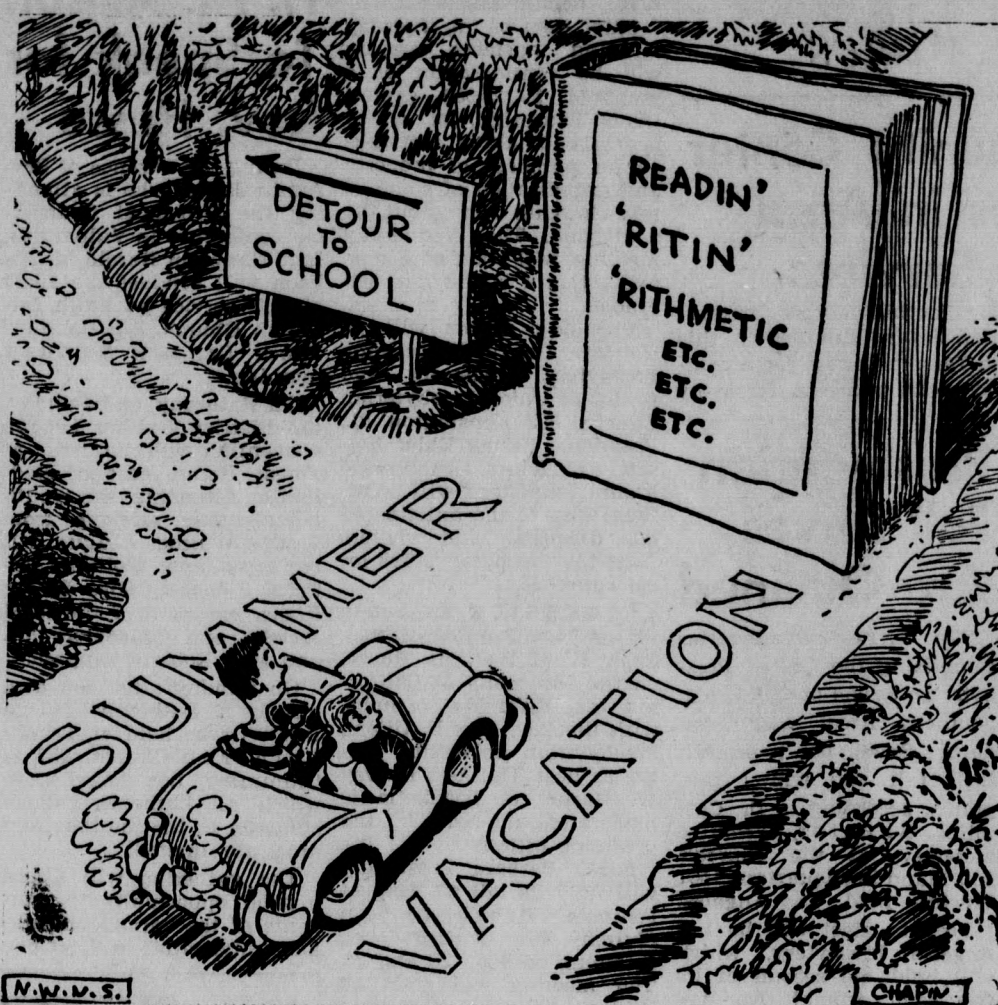

PERHAPS it was the fact that the Pasadena papers by-passed our Aqua Fair, both in pictures and news, that affected the Sierra Madre recreational director, for the publicity he provided after the show was even more inadequate.

THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS, using every possible effort and three days' time, was unable to print a complete list of the winners in the swim races and the names of officials, including a city councilman, who gave unstintingly of their time to make the Aqua Fair the success it was, simply because Recreational Director Sommers did not provide us this necessary information.

Director Sommers might cogitate on the fact that it is the Sierra Madre public which pays him his salary and provides him his job.

If he's too much upstage or indifferent to realize this it's about time we obtained another recreational director who does.

What Do You Think?

In Los Angeles a truck, while parking, broke a low-hanging branch off of a tree. The authorities decided a new tree must be placed there and one was bought for $2.69.

But when officialdom is involved you can't just go and plant a tree, even after an approved tree has been bought. There must be inspections and probably a whole crew of employees sent out to do the job. Thus the bill rendered called for $108.68.

That, my children, is what they call political economy.

AFTER ALL'S SAID and done—or, rather, after all's said and nothing done—the average American household is in far more danger from fallings-out than from fall-out.

IT REALLY doesn't pay to be too correct. I have a neighbor whose whole moonlit evening is spoiled if he hears a hoot owl say to-who.

instead of to-whom.

I FELT much hope when the nonpartisan Fair Campaign Practices Committee, headed by Charles P. Taft of the Ohio Tafts who gave us a great senator and a President, organized for the purpose of preventing or minimizing the spreading of false, malicious and bigoted rumors about candidates.

But last week the executive director of that committee sadly announced that more anti-Roman Catholic pamphlets, circulars and whispered rumors are being circulated than ever before. Every American colony was founded by persons seeking religious freedom, and our founding fathers made it the cornerstone of all our liberties. It is so un-American to vote against—or for—a good citizen because of his religion that most of those who do it pretend they are doing it for some other reason. Speaking as a lifelong Protestant, I feel it shameful thus to cast slurs on all the good citizens who happen to be Catholics.

BRUCE RUSSELL, brilliant cartoonist on the Los Angeles Times, has just become president of the Cartoonists Association of the United States and Canada—a deserved honor to a wonderful guy.

HOORAY FOR Eisenhower's strong stand against the Connally amendment. We can't ever have a United Nations police force, ready to step in wherever disorders such as those in Africa threaten to keep the peace until things are settled by law and justice, and until we ourselves are willing to abide by rules we would like to see enforced on others.

IT ALWAYS makes me smile when any Washington figure who abhors Medicare gets sick or hurts his knee and goes to Walter Reed Hospital.

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

52 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 18, 1908—Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Ward entertained last Saturday evening in honor of their eldest daughter, Miss Jessie Ward. About a score of friends were taken on a "hay ride" to Pasadena and return. The beautiful moonlight and delightful air, following two warm days, made the trip most opportune. The evening passed all too rapidly, the enjoyment of the guests never flagging from the start to the arrival home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert See, formerly of Los Angeles, are now settled in their new home on the "Irwin Place" recently purchased from the G. H. Wilcoxens. Mr. See is engaged in the oil business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fowler will return this week from a two-week visit at San Francisco.

Mrs. R. H. Baker, mother of Mrs. C. H. Baker of Highland Ave., is spending a fortnight at Long Beach.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 13, 1940—Sierra Madre's new public library came a long way closer to realization this week when the Board of Trustees for the library tentatively accepted an architect's preliminary sketch and specifications for the new building.

Sierra Madre's Republican committee has opened headquarters in the block adjoining the Sierra Madre Drug Co. on Sierra Madre Blvd. Daniel Terry and Mrs. Helen Lovejoy are in charge of the headquarters which are open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily.

The amount of money misappropriated from the city's water fund by Mrs. Florence D. Jensen, formerly deputy city clerk, was fixed at $2,987 in an auditor's report filed with the City Council Tuesday evening by the Harry F. Booth Co., which has been auditing the city's accounts since April, 1938.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maiben and daughter, Aubrey, of 334 N. Lima St., have returned from a 2-week sojourn in Del Mar.

10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 14, 1950—Mt. Wilson has been closed to the public because of the extreme fire hazards. U.S. Forestry Service Patrolman Richard H. Young and Sierra Madre Fire Chief James C. Heasley made the announcement Saturday, effective on that date. The trail will be closed from Carter Ave. through Orchard Camp.

Mrs. Marjorie Rizzo, deputy registrar of voters, will have the voters registration table set up at the PE Depot from 2 p.m. through 7 p.m. today, Sept. 14. She hopes to register Pacific Electric commuters and "anyone else who happens along" before the registration deadline tonight.

Mrs. Betty Ann Martiet, 222 E. Highland, was honored at a baby shower luncheon recently given by Mrs. Wade B. Rubottom of Los Angeles.

Mary Louise Polgreen and Horace Preston (Jack) Williams eloped to Las Vegas Sept. 3 and were married there at the Wee Kirk of the Heather. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Polgreen of 263 W. Highland.

5 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Sept. 15, 1955—Dr. Chilton C. McPheeters who was recently appointed pastor of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church, comes to the community with many years of experience on both the East and West Coasts, and his most recent experience was as a member of the staff of Trinity Methodist Church in Los Angeles.

Seven hundred and forty-seven Sierra Madre Public School pupils checked in for the first day of school Tuesday. This is an increase of 16 over last year's figure of 731.

Funeral services were conducted at Ripple's Mortuary Chapel Tuesday morning for Mrs. Maybelle Travis DeWitt of Los Angeles. A native of Heppner, Ore., she also was the aunt of Mrs. Christopher Robertson, 183 E. Orange Grove Ave. Mrs. Earl T. Knowles officiated at the services. Inurnment was in Spokane, Wash.

Letter to The Editor

Pacific Fruit Express operates a unique car assembly plant at Los Angeles. It is jointly owned by Southern Pacific Company and Union Pacific Railroad. One thousand 50-foot, steel, mechanical refrigerator cars are rolling off the assembly line at the rate of five a day.

A diesel engine in each car automatically and accurately maintains a predetermined temperature. The cars are designed for use as box cars on the return trip. They will not immediately replace ice-cooled cars because certain types of produce require contact with crushed ice. Icing en route has been streamlined for minimum delay. The older cars also are useful to keep contents from freezing in winter.

In spite of competition, which benefits by property-tax free public roads, railroads are keeping abreast of transportation needs. They are doing so without usurping public highway space. K. FRITZ SCHUMACHER Former Santa Fe "Rail" ginners.

Behind The Scenes In Business

By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK—American business is paying increasing attention to checking up on the health of its senior executives.

The idea of the annual checkup isn't new, but what is noteworthy now is the springing up of medical organizations actually specializing in this unusual field.

In this city, one such organization is ready to give five full-fledged medical examinations in a two-hour period that includes a coffee break; the price tag can run as high as $125.

Testing isn't restricted to such traditional subjects as blood pressure and chest X-rays. So, electrocardiograms study the heart. Cancer checks are made. At the conclusion, the physician discusses his findings with the executive and advises on such subjects as whether to gain or lose weight (often it's the latter).

Similar clinical groups specializing in the "super checkups" are found in Chicago and several other cities. Clients include the nation's largest steel company and its second-largest automobile maker, notes Sales Management.

While many top firms are turning to this method, it appears that a large number will stick to the older system of having their own company paid doctor give annual checkups as a service of the medical department. A giant food company has had this system for some 25 years; lower salaried managers and clerks get a fairly simple checkup, while upper bracket officials receive a series of tests lasting almost a full day.

ULTIMATE AIRPLANE—A chemically powered eight-engine aircraft capable of orbiting the globe at speeds up to 17,000 miles an hour is envisioned by Alexander Kartveli, pioneer aircraft engineer and vice president of research and development, Republic Aviation Corporation.

Kartveli, who is responsible for more than 14 aircraft types, including the World War II P-47 Thunderbolt and today's F-105 Thunderchief, also foresees at least four more "generations" of advanced aircraft types before the building of satellites and spacehips becomes the chief concern of aircraft makers, and aviation gives way to "astronautics."

The Russian-born designer says the apparent "abdication" on the part of designers with respect to new, unique and advanced types of aircraft design "could cause a tragic situation in the future." He added that the aircraft type he believes will be the final design to be accomplished before the limit of aeronautical design has been reached is a "lifting machine with chemical-air-breathing power plant, carrying substantial military load, capable of taking off from the ground, accelerating to orbital speed, orbiting around the earth and landing on earth when desired."

THINGS TO COME—A new baby carrier, adapted from the papoose-packing principle employed by Indian mothers, is now available to modern, active mothers. It's a sturdy canvas seat equipped with adjustable shoulder straps. Baby slips into it easily and rides along comfortably on mother's hip.

A recently introduced one-gallon marine jug is designed to float when full. Its contents are safe from salt water and it is resistant to rust and corrosion.

WOOD WASTE USAGE—A growing new industry is being developed through use of mill wastes, bark, sawdust, chips and even small branches. Forest industries now sell about $60 million a year worth of chemicals derived from such byproducts, roughly a third more than five years ago.

Many such chemicals are utilized in paints, plastics, agricultural and other fields. One industry, for instance, has started marketing a new waterproof adhesive made from hemlock bark and another converts bark sawdust into cyanide and other chemicals for textile dyes.

BITS O' BUSINESS—An Arizona home builder advertises, "Buy now and make no payments until 1961." . . . Some 2,500 patents have been granted in search for a substitute for wooden railroad crossties. . . . A California university now offers "early bird" classes—7:10 to 9 a.m.—for working en-

The Toyon Road Battle . . . Earnest Presentation From the People

Dear Editor:

We wish to take exception to an article which was printed in the Pasadena Star-News on Aug. 25, 1960, since we feel that the reporting, unintentionally perhaps, was not entirely factual. The article stated that the "property owners" on Toyon Rd. had failed to "block" or "stop" a subdivision.

Our contention is that at no time have we ever tried to stop or block the subdivision; rather, our purpose has been to interest the City of Sierra Madre in making the best possible use of this land and any other land within the city limits which may successfully be developed, and our reasons remain the same; namely, the health, safety and welfare of the present residents of the city and of those who are yet to come.

Furthermore, we feel that this whole situation has been ineptly handled, especially since the subdivision bought this property with the full knowledge that he had no access to a public street as is required by law. We feel it would have saved much time and he would not have aroused the inimical emotions on the part of the Toyon Road residents that he has, if he had been advised by the city to acquire his access prior to the filing of a tentative map.

However, this was not the chosen way, so we think the people of Sierra Madre may be interested in viewing the situation from our side of the fence.

WE THINK the people may be under the impression that the former Lewis property had been rezoned to R-15,000. Ostensibly it has, with the reservation that it remains R-7,500 as far as this subdivision is concerned, although all the hillside property surrounding it, and all the other hillside property within the city limits has been rezoned to R-15,000.

We realize that we, perhaps enforced this action, and we rejoice that it has been accomplished, even though we wonder why we as residents must be penalized for stirring up the hornet's nest. We were told that, since Mr. Arthur Shapiro, the subdivision, has bought the land when it was zoned R-7,500, it could not be changed at a later time. Yet, when Mr. Pratt who resides on W. Orange Grove Ave., wished to make a lot-split on his property which he bought at an R-7,500 zoning, the property in his block was rezoned twice, first to R-111, then to R-15,000 square feet to prevent him from building another house on his lot.

In all fairness, let us state that, in this particular case, we feel that Mr. Pratt, while legally within his rights, was morally wrong. But if it is legally right to change the zoning within the city in his case, why is it wrong to change it on Toyon Rd.?

THE PROPERTIES surrounding the old Lewis property on three sides are at present zoned R-15,000 and they are all one-half acre or more in size. The properties to the south are all 9,100 square feet or more in size. On that basis we feel that an R-7,500 zoning is inconsistent.

Now, we have been called "unreasonable" in our demands, and it has been said that we are trying to stop "progress." We are not trying to stop progress, but we are trying to make sure that it is true progress and not regress, so we ask you to consider the following points:

(1) Is it unreasonable for us to ask for just compensation for the damage which will be done to our walls, trees and expensive plantings when the subdivision moves in?

(2) Is it unreasonable for us to want to know why we must dedicate a 50-foot width of our land for a road, when no more than 35 feet of said land will be paved?

(3) Is it unreasonable for a property owner to object to "giving" away part of his private property in order to prevent the "bottling up" of water on the aforesaid land during rainy season, and so that the subdivision will gain a "better looking" subdivision to boot?

These are only a few of the questions which have been raised, but there are other things which concern the city.

We have been told that we are selfish to prefer our privacy. This is a fallacy, since we have paid for the paving and upkeep of our road and the city has not been put to any expenditure of tax monies for this purpose. Neither have we endangered the rest of the city in any way. We like good neighbors and will welcome more of them providing the slogan, "Little Foothill City of Livability," is adhered to and providing they are given a chance to happy living.

AND NOW MAY we discuss the question of economics in regard to subdivisions? We have been hearing a cry that the water situation is "touchy" in our town. If this is so, crowded subdivisions will not help the situation, because logic states that the more people served, the more water is needed.

Also the argument has been advanced that subdivisions add to the profit of the town merchants. Is this really true? Most subdivisions, because they contain three (or more) bedroom houses, are bought by young families. These folk, due to the need to economize, are patrons of the supermarkets and chain stores, rather than of our merchants who give excellent services but may charge a few extra pennies for an article.

It has been said that the city will reap tax benefits from the subdivision, but is this necessarily so? From the state level on down we hear the cry that the population explosion is the cause of the depletion of the treasures. So, again, logic dictates the premise that the more people we have, the greater the demands for schools, recreation facilities and other services. It never seems to come out "even."

We request your earnest thought along these lines so that foresight may remain better than hindsight.

AND LASTLY, we ask you to consider the fact that our city attorney has offered the subdivision help in the act of condemning our private land so that we, and our objections, may quickly be disposed of.

The subdivision's attorney, Mr. Garcin, stated that he felt that use of the 1903 law regarding condemnation was the same as using a "bludgeon" on property owners. We think so, too, but we think that any condemnation, or the threat of it, is using a club on people who are merely asking for the consideration of their rights as residents of the city.

Perhaps unwarranted threats are the right weapons to use in order to encourage good citizenship, but we doubt it. Rather, we think, it engenders contempt for the law and for those who enforce it, where fair treatment might produce the opposite effect. If public necessity demanded a sacrifice on our part, it would be a different matter; but we object when one citizen is permitted to enforce his wishes on a group of citizens for the purpose of pecuniary profit.

We wish to thank the editor of our fine weekly newspaper for the use of space for printing this article, especially since it would be most profitable for him to use it to print an ad. However, he realizes there are always two sides to any question, and for this, we thank him, too.

—The People of Toyon Road.

Eisenhower's 'Help Nixon Strategy'

By Robert G. Spivack

WASHINGTON

ILLUSION OF LEADERSHIP—President Eisenhower is playing what, for him, is a new and unusual role in the political campaign.

While Vice President Richard M. Nixon is assuming a lofty attitude and barely deigns to mention his Democratic opponents, except in a pseudo-kindly manner, the President has unexpectedly become taunting and condescending in his approach.

This does not bode well for the Democrats and how they go about countering it will be an interesting study in campaign tactics.

The first tipoff on how Mr. Eisenhower will participate in the campaign came after the Senate had rejected moves by Senator John F. Kennedy and his supporters to broaden minimum wage legislation, health insurance and similar social welfare laws.

BOILED DOWN to its essentials, this was the President's argument:

How could Kennedy be expected to have any influence over his fellow Democrats next year, if he could not keep them in line now, when he is running for the Presidency?

The Democrats privately admit that it was a telling point and also that they did not come up with much of an answer. There was an answer, right at hand, that apparently was overlooked by Kennedy's board of strategy. They could have asked:

"How much influence did Nixon have over his fellow Republicans?" Little, it would seem. They, too, voted against the social welfare legislation. While Nixon echoed Senator Jack Javits on health insurance and civil rights, it was a hollow echo. For other Republicans went along. Actually Nixon came up with no program of his own during the debate session of Congress; he merely seconded the President's "22 points."

So while Kennedy failed to reach the goals he had set, at least there were goals.

THE UNMENTIONABLES

While Nixon and Kennedy argue back and forth over who scored what point during the post-convention session of Congress neither need be surprised that the many observers view the whole affair with a jaundiced eye.

Certainly the ordinary voter does not care one bit about these finer points of "one-ups-manship." What he probably does want to know is why neither candidate for President was able to accomplish anything substantial in the pre-election period when both repeatedly talked about the need for leadership.

The answer, of course, is that neither Nixon nor Kennedy publicly face up to the fact that Congress is controlled by a bitter, hard little group of special interest pleaders who have come to be known as "The Coalition" of Southern Democrats and Conservative Republicans.

In private both men as well as Mr. Eisenhower may admit that they don't know how to cope with "The Coalition." In public they merely substitute campaign oratory as an explanation for lack of action.

WHO ARE the big powers in "The Coalition"? Until he went on the national ticket, Lyndon B. Johnson certainly was a member; now his status is confused, with signs that he may have lost his grip, judging from the results of the Congressional session.

But the others remain firmly in control and continue to work as a team. Among them are: Richard Russell (D. Ga.), Robert Kerr (D. Okla.), Harry F. Byrd (D. Va.), Styles Bridges (R. N.H.), Everett Dirksen (R. Ill.) and half dozen more. When it comes to protecting privileges for offshore oil interests, or insurance companies, or the banks, these men know how to get results.

When it comes to new wage laws, broadening social security, or similar social welfare legislation, they know how to prevent results.

Until Kennedy or Nixon break up this combine, they are going to have trouble in the campaign and in the next four years, too, whoever wins the White House. So far there are no signs that either man has a plan of action for handling "The Coalition."

'Tis School Bells

School bells are ringing and thousands of young Americans will embark on their educational trails to prepare themselves to run this great country one day. Come to think about it, if today's present leaders don't start doing a little better, why the whole dang world is apt to go to pot before these Little Giants of Tomorrow ever get a chance to try out their stuff.

Pastor Hansen Turns Down Wisconsin Call to Remain With Shepherd of the Hills

The mission developer who organized Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church and became its first called pastor, the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, announced to the congregation last Sunday (Sept. 4) that he has received a call to serve his home church, St. Matthews, Evangelical English Lutheran Church of Wauwatosa, Wis.

Then he adds that, after prayerful consideration, his decision was to return the call and to remain as pastor of Shepherds of the Hills.

"I did not seek the call to St. Matthews, but having received it, did what any pastor should do—consider it prayerfully," Pastor Hansen told his congregation.

"I found no compelling reason to leave Shepherd of the Hills and its people."

Shepherd of the Hills was organized as a congregation of the Pacific Southwest Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America, on May 11, 1958. After meeting in the Upper Room of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club almost a year, the congregation moved to the Masonic Temple, 35 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, where Sunday School is held at 9 a.m. and the family worship at 10:10 a.m. Sundays.

THE CHURCH is now making plans to build on its three-acre site at the north-west intersection of Foothill Blvd. and Sanita Anita Ave., in Arcadia. Architects have been interviewed, and the Building Committee's recommendation will be acted upon by the Church Council before the choice of an architect is made by the congregation. This action is expected this month.

St. Matthews, where the pastor and his wife, Marion, were married, is one of the largest United Lutheran Churches in the Northwest Synod, having nearly 2,000 baptized and 1,400 confirmed members. Its pastor, the Rev. William Niebling, who preached at Shepherd of the Hills one Sunday this summer while Pastor Hansen was vacationing, has served the Wauwatosa church more than 40 years, and plans to retire soon.

Rabbi Einhorn's Topic Is 'Schools'

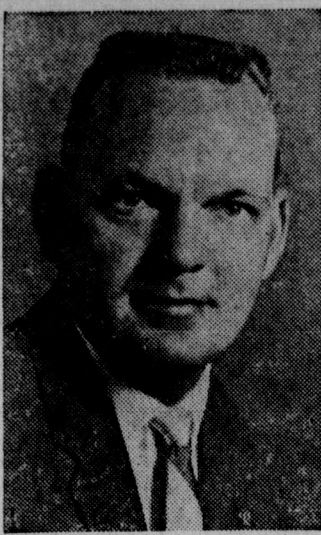

Rabbi Ephraim F. Einhorn, spiritual leader of Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley, will speak on "Religion in Schools" at the Shabbat Service on Friday, Sept. 9 at 8:30 p.m. The Rabbi has just returned from an extensive trip through Europe and Israel.

The temple is affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and is on Longden at Kaufman in Temple City.

Rev. McPheeters Back in Pulpit

The Rev. Chilton C. McPheeters returns from vacation again to occupy the pulpit at the Sierra Madre Methodist Church. His sermon will be "Bridging Life's Chasms."

Dr. McPheeters and his family have been motoring and visiting with friends in the New England states.

WAYNE E. PICKETT, representative of the Title Insurance and Trust Company, Los Angeles, who will present an illustrated lecture at tonight's 7:15 o'clock Lions Club meeting in the Pink and White Cottage, 147 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. His subject is "Yesterday."

New Organist At Shepherd

Courtney Goff of San Gabriel has accepted the post of organist at the Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church and played his first service last Sunday. He succeeds Donald H. Chambers of Arcadia who has entered the University of California at Berkeley.

The church last Sunday honored young Mr. Chambers, Kenneth H. Hilgaertner, Arcadia resident who begins full-time Christian service with the Lutheran Laymen's Movement, and Robert H. Vogel Jr., reelected treasurer of the Luther League of the synod at its recent Santa Barbara meeting.

School through Junior College age meet.

Tuesday evening at 8 p.m., Dr. Barnhart will continue her talks on "Intuition."

Rev. Rosalie Fowler will conduct the class in Bible study Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The public is welcome.

Thursday, Sept. 8, all men are cordially invited for swimming at 6 o'clock, and a barbecue supper at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting panel discussion on "Law of Mind and Prayer" will follow the barbecue.

It is good to establish a prayer pattern of listening. To practice this method dial HI 7-6162 any time of the day or night and 'BE STILL.'

Jewish Community Center Invites Families in Area To This Year's Services

Max Knell, president of the Foothill Jewish Community Center, invites unaffiliated Jewish families in this area to become members of the Temple Center, for a complete religious, educational and social program, for every member of the family.

Membership in the Temple Center includes meeting for the High Holy Day Services to be held at the Temple at 212 N. Lima St., Sierra Madre. Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, spiritual leader of the Temple, will conduct the services and deliver a series of Holy Day lectures.

The newly appointed cantor, Solomon Edelman, will chant the Holy Day liturgies, assisted by Mrs. C. Townner, organist.

All children from 5 to 12 years old are cordially invited to attend the Junior Congregation religious services held in the school building adjoining the Temple each day of the High Holy Day period.

REGISTRATION of children for a variety of classes in Hebrew and Sunday School will take place in the school building on Sunday, Sept. 11, from 10 till 12 noon, and on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 13 and 14, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Emanuel Lewin, school principal, has outlined an outstanding curriculum for the ensuing year.

Mr. Lewin has an excellent background as educator, having been formerly associated with the Wilshire Blvd. Temple in Los Angeles. The school is under the personal supervision of Rabbi Charles W. Steckel. He also is chaplain at the City of Hope Medical Center, past president of the Ministerial Association and member of the "Beth Din" (Religious Court).

Rebuilding At San Dimas Hiestand Aim

WASHINGTON—Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand (R-Calif.), whose 21st District includes almost all of the Angeles National Forest, appeared before a Congressional Subcommittee hearing, urging an emergency $500,000 appropriation for the burned-out San Dimas Watershed Experimental Station.

The disastrous Angeles National Forest fire last month destroyed almost entirely watershed cover facilities and research installations," Rep. Hiestand told the Appropriations Subcommittee of the Interior and Related Agencies.

He said, "Quick action could prove priceless. Control of the surface is essential and we could lose our only opportunity this century to gain valuable information if we fail to act now."

THE REPRESENTATIVE stressed urgency because installations must be in place and operating, and treatments applied, before the winter rains. Proper provision for measurement and maintenance during the winter season must also be made, he said.

Rep. Hiestand, who was in California and made an inspection tour of the district during the blaze, said the fire destroyed some experimental station projects which had been in operation more than 30 years.

Workshop for Theater Unit

President William N. Spargur, proprietor of "The Guitar Shop," 53 N. Baldwin, and president of the Sierra Madre Repertoire Theater, announced that the group will shortly inaugurate a theater workshop designed to acquaint actors and actresses with makeup, scene construction and painting, voice and other facets of play presentation.

Choice of the second play to be offered will be announced shortly, Mr. Spargur adds. The first play, "One Mad Night," put on at the Sierra Madre School Auditorium in August, was a distinct success.

Rites Thursday For R. Hubachek

Following an illness, Rudolph Hubachek, 80, formerly a chef at the New Brunswick Seminary, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N.J., passed away Sept. 4 at St. Luke Hospital. He had been a resident of Sierra Madre, where he made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Helen M. Baboth of 206 W. Auburn Ave., for 11 years.

Rosary was said Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., with Mass following on Thursday at 9 a.m., at St. Rita's Church, with the Rev. Thomas O'Malley officiating. Interment in Resurrection Cemetery, with Ripple Mortuary in charge.

Mr. Hubachek's wife, Mary Agnes Hubachek, passed away in 1956.

'Bar-Mitzvah' For Malcolm Roane

Malcolm Roane, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Roane, will read a portion of the "Haftorah" on occasion of his "Bar-Mitzvah" at the regular Sabbath Services of the Foothill Jewish Community Center Temple Beth Israel, 212 N. Lima St., Sierra Madre, on Saturday morning, Sept. 10, at 9 o'clock.

Malcolm will receive his charge and benediction from Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, spiritual leader of the Temple Center. Cantor Solomon Edelman will chant the prayers. Friends, relatives and members of the congregation are cordially invited.

Bradley Quick Has Left for Duty in Korea

BRADLEY L. QUICK of 25 E. Colorado, Arcadia, left Friday for a 12-month tour of duty with the United States Navy in Korea. He enlisted in February, 1959, and after basic training was graduated from Yeoman School in San Diego. Since then he has been on the staff of the Seabee School at Port Hueneme.

Young Quick was graduated from the Pasadena High School and attended Pasadena City College where he was a member of Zeta Sigma fraternity. He is widely known in Sierra Madre.

Lippold Will Head Scouts' New District

The newly consolidated Boy Scout District embracing Sierra Madre, San Marino, Pasadena, Altadena and La Canada will be headed by Paul E. Lippold as chairman.

Elected as vice chairman for the new district are Vic Harris, Pasadena; Richard Ridgway, San Marino; Nicholas Brandt, Pasadena; Bernard Morse, Altadena; and Harry Wilson, La Canada. John F. Horn, Pasadena, is district commissioner.

The district is the largest in the San Gabriel Valley Council of Boy Scouts, with 137 Cub packs, Scout troops and Explorer posts, serving 4,000 youngsters. Two full-time Scout executives have been assigned to the district, Jerry Pontius, Pasadena, as district executive, and Vincent Rock, Pasadena, assistant.

Classes To Begin Sept. 12

San Gabriel Valley Women's Chorus will begin rehearsals Sept. 12 in the Choir Room of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Monrovia, starting at 9:30 a.m.

The chorus, under the sponsorship of Monrovia-Duarte Evening High School, will meet each Monday morning from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock and is open to all women enjoying group singing.

Two concerts are planned for the coming season, one at Christmas time and one in the spring.

Child care will be provided at a nominal sum. In order to plan adequate care for children who will be present opening day, it is requested women planning to bring their children should call Mrs. Porter at ELliott 8-0379 by Sept. 7.

The school's landscape painting class also will be held Monday mornings from 9 until 12 noon at the Adult Center, beginning Sept. 12 and under the direction of Mrs. Arleen Huseby.

The class covers the basic method of the media for beginners or advanced students. All work is done from nature, with criticism of individual's work.

Woman Badly Cut By Falling Glass

A glass falling as Mrs. Phyllis Corso emerged from her bathtub at her home, 610 W. Holly Trail, cut the back of her wrist so badly last Thursday that treatment at Sierra Madre Hospital was necessary, according to police report.

Angela Whittley Called by Death

Angela Frances Whittley, 84, a practical nurse, of 41 W. Foothill Blvd., Arcadia, a Californian all of her life and a resident of the city for ten years, passed away on Sept. 3 at Monterey Sanitarium, South San Gabriel.

She leaves two sisters, Mrs. William F. Helm of Arcadia, and Mrs. Louise Reynolds of Compton; and two brothers, Frank Beraldo of Santa Barbara, and Dewey Beraldo of Burlingame.

Rosary was said Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., with Mass Wednesday at 9 a.m., with the Rev. Thomas O'Malley of St. Rita's Church, officiating. Interment in Resurrection Cemetery, with Ripple Mortuary in charge.

Will Itemize Phone Bills

Itemized statements on calls dialed to other exchanges in the Los Angeles area will soon be issued by California Water and Telephone Company, according to Ralph Dutro, district manager. Such service to ELgin and ELliott patrons starts in December, at no cost to subscribers.

When the recent rate increase became effective, customers complained about lack of itemized statements, demanding service to match the higher costs. The itemized statement will be included with the bill, as is presently done with long distance calls.

Previous custom lumped all area calls together and the customer had no opportunity to check charges.

Moyers Return

Mrs. Kenneth L. Moyer, 49 N. Mountain Trail, and her two daughters have returned from a two-week vacation at the Girl Scout camp at Singing Woods.

Our Visiting Nurses

The Visiting Nurse is a registered graduate nurse or licensed vocational nurse.

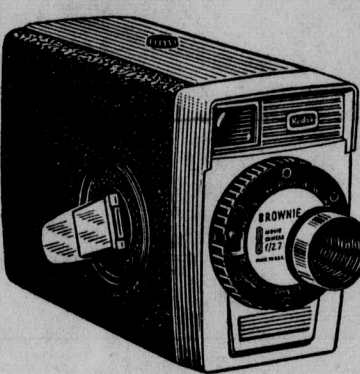

She may be called by you, your family, a neighbor or friend when needed but continues services under your doctor's orders.

She gives skilled nursing care and treatment to patients with acute or prolonged illness.

The patient pays according to ability to pay. The Community Chest makes adjustments on actual cost possible.

Last year 127 calls were made in Sierra Madre; about 50 paid the full fee and 50 more paid part of the fee. More than one-half of the calls are for patients 65 years and over.

Reflections While Shopping

By Lisa Churchill

Mighty glad to know you are all back safe and sound. I took the train down the coast on Saturday and felt smug when I looked out on the highway at San Clemente and saw the cars lined up bumper to bumper.

HOPE YOU all enjoyed the "Open House" last week at Fashionette. Flo Mankin and her associates are delightful people. Drop in and see them and pick up a new coiffure while you are there.

KENOSHA, Wisconsin Day Picnic—Received word from Charles V. Campagna in Inglewood that the annual Kenosha, Wisconsin Day Picnic will be held at Centinella Park, Inglewood on Sep. 11—all day. All you Kenosha, Wis. refugees, pack your lunch and hie yourselves to Inglewood.

Someday I am going to attend one of these Home Town or Home State picnics. A friend of mine attended one recently in Ontario. She told me that the entire length of Euclid Ave. was a mass of picnic tables and families having a wonderful time renewing old acquaintances.

MILTON PIUMA of Von's Shopping Bag at Michillinda and Sierra Madre Blvd. gave me an interesting column tidbit last week. One of his customers had just returned from Europe (another traveler), and she observed that the book stalls all over the Continent were filled with only the trashiest of American books and magazines.

Upon inquiring she discovered that the booksellers have to buy the lot. The better books and magazines are snapped up quickly leaving only the second, third and fourth class publications on display. Not a good advertisement of the American Way of Life.

Who the proper parties are to contact to correct this unfortunate situation, I would not know. However, I think it is evidence that we need "More Magazines for Friendship."

If you are interested, contact Dr. Albert Croissant of Occidental College. This is his pet project and is doing an amazing amount of good in spreading the American Story abroad.

LOTS of adult education classes starting this next week at Pasadena City College. Three on advertising, one on classified advertising copy writing given by this columnist on Monday evenings starting Sept. 12.

Woodward, Dane Lose Tennis Prize

Braving the torrid week-end temperatures, 24 members and friends of the Sierra Madre Tennis Club participated in the annual Labor Day Weekend Open Doubles Tournament sponsored by the club at the City Park tennis courts last Sunday.

The day-long tournament concluded with the finalists from the two sections playing off for winner and runner-up positions.

LeRoy Toms and Gary Rhodus met stiff opposition from Frank Dane and Marcus Woodward, but finally won the tournament with set scores of 5-7, 7-5, and 6-4.

Team and Tournament Committee Chairman Robert Englert presented Toms and Rhodus with the winner trophies, and Dane and Woodward with the runner-up trophies.

The next Open Doubles Tournament to be sponsored by the club will be in early December.

Nursery School Has Open House

It was open house yesterday from 9 to 11 a.m. at the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School when parents of preschool youngsters, friends and the children themselves, were greeted by Mrs. John Sessions, Mrs. Gerald Marugg Jr., school director, and other women identified with the organization.

Visiting mothers and children had an opportunity to see the outstanding facilities and play equipment of the school at 701 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., and to meet the teaching staff. Refreshments were served.

Permit For $77,640 Unit

J. H. Hendrick, San Gabriel developer, is erecting a $77,640 multiple six-unit dwelling at 425 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., according to a permit issued from the Sierra Madre Building Department.

Building permits for the city in August showed an appreciable decrease over the corresponding period a year ago.

The figures for August this year totaled $122,126, compared to $206,521 a year ago, a drop of $84,395.

Outstanding Program Is Arranged for Adults at Monrovia-Duarte Hi School

Monrovia-Duarte Evening High School is prepared to continue the outstanding program of education for adults in Monrovia, Sierra Madre and adjacent communities.

The adult program is administered in eight centers in Monrovia and Duarte, in order that a maximum availability may be achieved. The major centers of operation are the Monrovia High School and the Duarte High School.

The adult program operates two all-day and night centers, one at 150 E. Colorado Blvd. in Monrovia, and the other located at 1121 E. Huntington Dr. in Duarte.

In addition, centers of operation are at Kiwanis Youth Hut in Recreation Park, Plymouth Youth Hut on E. Longdon Ave., St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Non-Profit Nursery at 2062 E. Huntington Dr. in Duarte, and Youth Acres in Duarte.

THE PROGRAM designated for individuals interested in acquiring a high school diploma will continue, with some expansion of opportunities. Last June, 67 adults, ranging from 19 to 45 or more years of age, were awarded evening high school diplomas.

Subjects which are designed for the accredited high school program include U.S. History, English, mathematics, biology and government. Other courses, such as bookkeeping, accounting, typing, shorthand, shop, art and the like, may be utilized as elective courses in the high school program.

The general education tests are provided for mature adult individuals to shorten the time necessary for completing the requirements for high school diploma.

One hundred fifty semester periods of credit is the minimum required for the diploma. Ten units of history and five units of government acquired on the junior and/or senior level is required for graduation.

Work experience of educational value, credits transferred from other schools, and scholastic competence evidenced by successful performance on the general education tests can be applied toward the requirement.

Other academic type courses include electronic theory, English for the foreign-born, Russian language, Russian history, conversational Spanish, writing for publication, speech in action and geology.

Courses will be offered in bookkeeping, accounting, principles of real estate law, shorthand and typing.

ARTS AND CRAFTS, including industrial art, music and homemaking arts, comprise the largest number of classes and also the most extensive in participation. In this area, classes in ceramics, copper tooling, dressmaking and food artistry provide a varied selection of activities. Further, leather carving, photography, upholstery, interior decorating, textile painting and weaving are offered, as well as rug-making, millinery, wood fiber flowers and china painting.

The field of music encompasses a broad area. The San Gabriel Valley Symphony Orchestra provides the best opportunity for participation. In addition, the Concert mental hygiene and physical health.

Driver education and training will be offered again this fall provided enough interested persons contact the adult education office. Approximately 60 persons availed themselves of this program during two four-week series of classroom instruction and driver training courses which operated from June 1 through August 1.

The fall school term will begin on Sept. 12, 1960, and anyone interested in attending is requested to call the adult education office located in the Monrovia High School, Colorado and Madison, Monrovia, telephone ELIott 8-2551, Ext. 16, or ELIott 8-4043. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Rillortas Break Ground for Home

Mr. and Mrs. Augustin T. Rillortas, of 296 Santa Anita Ct., chose the former's 28th birthday anniversary in which to break ground for their new home now being erected on a plot at 15 Carter St., Sierra Madre.

The home which will also house the family's two children, Linda, 6, and Benjie, 3, is expected to be completed during the December and January holidays.

Trees in Your Landscape; Space Is Limiting Factor

It's difficult to imagine a garden without trees. In fact, it's impossible. Trees lend substance to landscape as no smaller shrubs and plants can do. They shade and soothe us when the sun is high; they frame views of sky and terrain with the intricate patterns of their boughs.

How dull the garden would be without them!

In an age of ever-shrinking space, moreover, trees play a new and important role. They break the monotony of sameness which we see in so many new developments. Their individuality is needed.

Yet, if the need for trees is greater than ever, our choice of them is narrower. Space is a limiting factor and the gardener is often happier with small trees or large shrubs that can be trained as trees. And often in small places, he is happier with a deciduous tree, since evergreens block his light in winter.

THERE IS ROOM for both evergreen and deciduous trees, even in small gardens. However, for the sake of interest and variety, California Association of Nurserymen members favor planting both.

Along the boundary, you will usually want evergreen material since it screens you from the world and provides privacy on a year-round basis. Try Victorian Box, a shrub that can be trained as a good small tree, along the rear fence. Its blossoms bear heavenly fragrance in spring and often again in summer. Train it to a trunk that branches out at fence top. Other evergreens for fence-boundary planting include pineapple guava, olive, Carolina or Catalina cherry, and Grecian laurel.
